Landscape Regulations

To maintain the pristine condition of our landscape, the following are the responsibilities of the HOA and the homeowner(s)

ASSOCIATION RESPONSIBILITIES

- Cutting of grass in common areas
- Trimming and maintenance of association perimeter hedges
- Trimming and maintenance of hedges along Connie Blvd.
- Cutting, trimming and edging of grass at homeowners residence
- Trimming of any hedges or bushes directly in front of a homeowners residence and around air conditioning units. Hedges may not exceed 36 inches from the residence and the association will maintain a height equal to the bottom of any front windows or height of porch screening.

HOMEOWNERS RESPONSIBILITIES

- The homeowner must get written permission from the association prior to the planting of any tree, shrub or bush. Failure to comply will result in possible removal by the association of said tree, shrub or bush at owners expense
- Any tree that is 22 feet from the rear of the residence is the are the responsibility of Delray Villas Plat 3 HOA.
- All trees and or bushes within the 22 feet line are the sole responsibility of the homeowner and subject to a yearly inspection by the association. When you purchase your residence, you also purchase any tree bush or plants within the 22 foot property line and it becomes your property and responsibility.
- If there are currently any fruit trees on your property they will also be inspected yearly for diseases. Any diseased trees will be removed at the owners expense. Any fruit that falls on the ground must be picked up by the homeowner.

I have read and understand the meaning and intent of these responsibilities.

7. Buyers and renters must meet with HOA board member by phone or in person to go over all rules and regulations within 30 days of occupancy.
8. The buyer must pay an amount equal to $1500.00 (fifteen hundred) at closing for the Capital Gains Contribution Fee, which was authorized by the state of Florida and approved by our Homeowners on January 11, 2021. This fee is not refundable or transferable and does not apply to any regular quarterly maintenance.
9. No unit may be rented until you have owned the unit for a minimum of 24 months and then you may apply to do so. A renter is anyone that resides in the unit for more than 30 days in a calendar year, irrelevant of whether any money changes hands or their relationship to owner without owner occupying unit. No one can occupy the unit for the first two (2) years of ownership unless the deeded owner is an occupant on a full-time basis.
 - a. Visitors are permitted to be at the residence not greater than 90 days in one calendar year
 - b. There are no age requirements for visitors
 - c. Visitors are NOT permitted without the homeowner occupying the unit at the same time.
 - d. Under no circumstances may any person under the age of forty (40) be allowed to permanently occupy a unit unless with a permanent resident 55 years of age or older.
 - e. Rental of homes must apply to the board with a completed rental application and a fee of $100.
 - f. Homes may not be rented more than once in a calendar year
 - g. Occupancy of an empty home is not permitted without an appropriate rental application and rental residents need to abide by all age and pet regulations..
 - h. A home may be purchased by a family member who does not meet age requirements but must be occupied by a family member who does meet the age requirement.

- i. CC & R rules for renting and leasing are as follows:
There shall be no subleasing of a lot, and no portion of a lot (other than the entire lot) may be rented. In addition, no transient tenancies shall be allowed, such as, but not limited to, a lease, license or other transfer or tenancy through an organization such as Air BNB, VRBO or any other similar entity, website or organization, and it shall be considered a violation of this provision to list or post a lot on any such website or through any such company, agency or organization. Further, other than the immediate family members of the lessee, there shall be no more than two (2) occupants per bedroom at any given time, and bedrooms shall be defined as those rooms that were originally constructed as bedrooms at the time a Certificate of Occupancy was issued for the lot.

- 10. Owners are responsible for maintaining both inside and outside of their homes, however the HOA board has full architectural control, meaning nothing can be added or changed to the exterior of your unit without written permission from the Architectural Committee, co-signed by the president. The Board of Directors has the authority to enforce proper maintenance of the unit. Bi-annual inspections of all units are performed and homeowners are required to comply with outside repairs reported for the unit. Please make note of this because any changes made without permission will be restored to its original state at your expense.
- 11. Maintenance payments are due quarterly on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 and must be paid no later than the 10th of the month that it is due or you will be assessed late fees.
- 12. Roadway speed limits and stop signs must be obeyed.
- 13. Buyer must acquire entry fob for the clubhouse and its facilities, as well as a key for our satellite pool and a copy of both our documents and the recreation association documents. These documents are available on our website, www.delrayvillas3.com. It is wise to read our documents because ignorance of them is not accepted as a reason for violations.

The undersigned understands and will abide by these guidelines.
